Saviour

Halford

I'm set to paralyze
I'm older so I'm wise
I have been crucified
With words personifiedHere I am now, I'm your savior
There can be only one
I'm the master, past and future
Now the end has begunI've always stood alone
Your time got overgrown
Those words shot way too wide
No hate can take my prideHere I am now, I'm your savior
You can see I'm the one
There's no reason, for such treason
Now your end has begunHere I am now, I'm your savior
There can be only one
I'm the master, past and future
Now the end has begunHere I am now, I'm your savior
You can see I'm the one
There's no reason, for such treason
Now your end has begun
