

On My Own

Miley Cyrus

Hey! I ain't looking at you
For no particular reason
It doesn't inspire for me to be in
I gotta open that door
Hey, I gotta get it open hey
I'm breaking way through, just like the robber
And smile for the camera
Damn, I feel awesome!
But she doesn't know more
Gotta get it opened! You never listen when I need someone to talk to
So you switch the subject
Cause, cause it's beyond you
When you talk about your dreams, I'm never included
I need to stop sleeping on myself
Wake up and do it on my own!
I found a way, yeah
And I'll do it on my one, hey!
I can do anything, yeah
And I'll do it on my own Can't you get it done with the help of no one
I came to this word by myself
So I don't need nobody else!
We have just begun,
So much to do, so young
Don't be afraid of alone
You'll get it done on your own!
Uh, uh, uh! I know you're in there
Open up, open up!
Just like the feds, looking for the stuff
Three knocks at the door
I gotta get it open!
I'm so confused with all the traffic
I'mma skip the line
Who cares what happens
I gotta stay on that course
I gotta get it open! You never listen when I need someone to talk to
So you switch the subject
Cause, cause it's beyond you
When you talk about your dreams, I'm never included
I need to stop sleeping on myself

Wake up and do it on my own!
I found a way, yeah
And I'll do it on my own
I can do anything, yeah!
And I'll do it on my own! Can't you get it done with the help of no one
I came to this word by myself
So I don't need nobody else!
We have just begun,
So much to do, so young
Don't be afraid of alone
You'll get it done on your own! You never listen when I need someone to talk to
So you switch the subject
Cause, cause it's beyond you
When you talk about your dreams, I'm never included
I need to stop sleeping on myself
Wake up and do it on my own!
I found a way, yeah
And I'll do it on my own
I can do anything, yeah!
And I'll do it on my own! Can't you get it done with the help of no one
I came to this word by myself
So I don't need nobody else!
We have just begun,
So much to do, so young
Don't be afraid of alone
You'll get it done on your own!
