

Only Get So Far

Brides Of Destruction

I remember our first goodbye
And the kiss in the doorway as you cried
To let you go it breaks my heart
You walked away
'Cause you'll only get so far
You'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far, without love
If you're lonely today
Well you're not far away
'Cause you'll only get so far
I remember out next goodbye
And you cried and promised me your life
Loss of faith in those starry eyes
You walked away
'Cause you'll only get so far
You'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far without love
If you're lonely today
Well you're not far away
'Cause you'll only get so far
I'm tryin' to remember
Why I ever left at all
Need you to remind me
'Cause you know where I belong
When these miles are too long
I can't wait to come home
I need you in my arms
'Cause you'll only get so far
When these miles are too long
I can't wait to come home
I need you in my arms
'Cause you'll only get so far, only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far without love
If you're lonely today
But you're not far away
'Cause you'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far

You'll only get so far
'Cause you'll only get so far without love
 If you're lonely today
 Well you're not far away
'Cause you'll only get so far
 Without love
