Attention

King Kobra

I'm trying to tell you
I'm trying to know you
I'm dying to show you
Fighting to get you
Soon as you got me
You go and drop me
It's cruel when you burn me
I love how you hurt me
Oh no, I'll never let you go
Oh no, I hate that I need you so
It's not what you said
It's the way you say it
It's not what you did
It's the way you do it
Sick and tired of needing your affection
I chose to be lonely than live without your
Attention
I scatch your sweet name
Right into my skin
You left me bleeding
But I couldn't give in
I swallowed all the poison to get infected

Give back my heart that you body rejected
Oh no, I'll never let you go
Oh no, I hate that I need you so
It's not what you said
It's the way you say it
It's not what you did
It's the way you do it
Sick and tired of needing your affection
I chose to be lonely than live without your
Attention
I'm standing in the pain
That's smothering me
It's more becoming my own brother can see
That I'm starving for your love
And I need attention
Or I'm gonna die

It's not what you said
It's the way you say it
It's not what you did
It's the way you do it
Sick and tired of needing your affection
I chose to be lonely than live without your
