Shelter

Cheap Trick

If I had a child, I would shelter it from harm
If I had a child, I would hold it in my arms
If I had a child, I would love it as my own
If I had a home
If I had a mom, I would shelter her from harm
If I had my mother, she would never lose her grace
If I had a mother, she would shelter me from harm
Oh, if I had a mom

If I had a love, I would shelter it from a broken heart
If I had a heart, I'd surrender it to my love
If I had my father, he would smile
If I had my dad, he'd be so kind
If I had a dad, he would tell me I was good
Oh, if I, if I, if I had a dad, had my dad
