

Shelter

Cheap Trick

If I had a child, I would shelter it from harm

If I had a child, I would hold it in my arms

If I had a child, I would love it as my own

If I had a home

If I had a mom, I would shelter her from harm

If I had my mother, she would never lose her grace

If I had a mother, she would shelter me from harm

Oh, if I had a mom

If I had a love, I would shelter it from a broken heart

If I had a heart, I'd surrender it to my love

If I had my father, he would smile

If I had my dad, he'd be so kind

If I had a dad, he would tell me I was good

Oh, if I, if I, if I had a dad, had my dad
