

This Train Is Gone

Frankie Chavez

I know she goes away
once in a while i wonder why i didn't even try
she makes me
believe in things
even if i was really part of them
i know
this train is gone
and i'm the only one
left alone
i breathe
as the trees
so i whist and talk
no matter whatch your call(?) i live happy without you once your gone
once with truth?
and i know
this train is gone
and i'm the only one
i know
this train is gone
and i'm the only one
(guitar)
i know
this train is gone
and i'm the only one left alone
i know
this train is gone
and i'm the only one
i'm the only one
end.
