Forever Girl

Jon Langston

Sheâ€™s dancing in a field
A flower in her hair
Sitting on my tailgate
I canâ€™t help but stare

Summer sun a shining
On her tan skin
I can feel her love
Blowing like the wind
Yes I can

We head out to the lake
Feet hanging off the dock
And talking everything
Sharing every little thought

We take a dip in the water
As the sun set on down
Ainâ€™t nothing like her wet hair
And the crickets sound

Itâ€™s a glass of wine to keep her sane
And I love the sound of her full name
Natural southern beauty
Canâ€™t explain what it does to me
Sheâ€™s everything in my whole world
Thatâ€™s my forever girl

We ride around in my truck
Singing our songs
Sheâ€™s looking so damn good
With that sun dress on

She slides on over
I hold her tight
And I say darling
Thank god that youâ€™re mine

Itâ€™s a glass of wine to keep her sane
And I love the sound of her full name

Natural southern beauty
Canâ€™t explain what it does to me
Sheâ€™s everything in my whole world
Thatâ€™s my forever girl

Itâ€™s a glass of wine to keep her sane
And I love the sound of her full name
Natural southern beauty
Canâ€™t explain what it does to me
Sheâ€™s everything in my whole world
Thatâ€™s my forever girl

Thatâ€™s my forever girl
