The Kills

Once upon a time in a place
Far, far away from here
Long, long ago, weary eyes
Drift past distorted lights
And dream of a love that made you feel more alive
Be worth any compromise
A love that would always keep you surprised
And prove to be worth a fight
No more days too long

Pretty love songs
You hum as you travel along
This lane, some road
And then you came in to say what your face already told
You said you found her and you
Would make her your bride
Stand by her till you die
And your tender eyes, they'll glisten with pride
And your smile so satisfied
