

When the Daylight Comes (Early Version)

Ian Hunter

Oo-Oo-Oo, Oo-Oo-Oo, Ooooo
Oo-Oo-Oo, Oo-Oo-Oo, Ooooo Sweet woman what's your name?
You smell as fresh as the rain
Instead of leaving you came
Let me feel your hair A light shines in your eyes
The hungry years are so nice
Shadows shake in the lamplight
No writer could explain But when the daylight comes
But when the daylight comes
But when the daylight comes
I'll be on my way Oo-Oo-Oo, Oo-Oo-Oo, Ooooo
Oo-Oo-Oo, Oo-Oo-Oo, Ooooo
Oo-Oo-Oo, Oo-Oo-Oo, Ooooo, yeah! Please share my bed and I swear
That I won't touch you nowhere
Just need your warmth and your care
Don't want to mess around And when the daylight comes
Yeah when the daylight comes
Oh when the daylight comes
I'll be on my way Yeah when the daylight comes
Yeah when the daylight comes
Yeah when the daylight comes
I'll be on my way But there's a song in the air
And it knows that you're there
'Cause it's making me share
You with my life
I know I know I know that
I want to weave you in words
Want to paint you in verse
Want to leave you in someone else's dreams
It seems the only way, Hey!
I can thank you, thank you baby Some people say that we're sinners
Some people say that we're winners
We make good gossip at dinners
They try to pin us down But when the daylight comes
Yeah when the daylight comes
Oh when the daylight comes
I'll be on my way Yeah when the daylight comes
Yeah when the daylight comes
Oh when the daylight comes

We'll be on my way

[Repeat]

Songwriters

Hunter, IanPublished by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>