

Remake Me & You

Diana Vickers

You're still gone
Maybe I should look for you
Hiding corners
Baby, I should be there too
Running for it
It's the only we save us
It's who we are
To see where it will take us
I can't run too long
Sorry, better find ourselves now
I don't think we're strong
Sorry but we gotta sort ourselves out
Here's my hands, here's my hand
You can hold on to
Where's your head, your head
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
Here's my hands, here's my hands
You can hold on to
Where's your head, your head
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
To hold on is hard so remake me and you
Remake me and
I can hold your body
But my grip is not strong enough
Out of my hands
But you could sink us both back up
Why we went wrong?
All I do is question it
Holding my tongue
All I want to do is admit
I can't run too long
Sorry, better find ourselves now
I don't think we're strong
Sorry but we gotta sort ourselves out
Here's my hands, here's my hand

You can hold on to
Where's your head, your head
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
Here's my hands, here's my hands
You can hold on to
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
To hold on is hard so remake me and you
Remake me and
Remake me and you
Remake me and
Remake me and you
You can hold on to
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
You can hold on to
Never thinking through
Here's my heart, here's my heart
You can take it with you
To hold on is hard so remake me and you
Remake me and
Remake me and you
