Verse1: The heat of you is my favorite sensation wait for your touch with such anticipation when flame is on I stop the world and melt with you we two must never be apart, smell your cologne and like a cat I'm hunting out of control and u know that I'm wanting, these pair of arms they won't leave you alone tonight.This feelings strong can't get enuf cause anyplace and anytime I'll break you off a piece of my love.Chorus: Anyplace and anytime I see you boy I melt inside you need to know I never wanna be without you Anyplace and anytime it doesn't matter where we are well I don't care I never wanna be without you.Verse2: When missin you I just shake and shiver and think of you I know you will deliver you prove me right everytime you come around
