

Mostly Grey

Emerson Hart

I used to be so beautiful
I used to build with my own hands
But I sold it away
I sold it awayI used to know the taste of tears
I've found a way to sell my fears
And I sold them away
I sold them awayI used to be
I used to be hereI used to care about the fight
And I'll fall to one, I broke my light
Now it's fading away
It's fading awayDon't fade away
Don't go away, pleaseI told myself a thousand times
I live and breathe between these lines
And when it shakes, I wash away
And all that's left is mostly greyI've locked myself inside a thought
I try to hide, but I got caught
Can't be undone, no more to say
And all that's left is mostly greyI used to think I had no end
But all I see is break
And I'd felt
