When We Were Five

Charlene Soraia

I don't see if you are meant for me
Why can't I even talk to you
And you know that in time
I'll declare your mine
Until then I just wont talk to you...
Please come back soon...I watched as you sunk into the moonlight..
I watched as you sunk into the moon..
Don't cry, remember who I am, I broke your heart..
Don't cry, remember who I am - I broke your heart..!When we were five, we stayed alive, when we were young...
