

Ready to Shine

Young Galaxy

I wasn't trying to change your point of view
It's just the late nights always got the best of you
Sometimes I would hide and cry all night, unsteady
Waiting for some contact, call back
To know you're ready, ready to shine Ready to shine
Ready to shine
Ready to shine
Ready to shine Can't you see you break the clouds for me
Just like the mornings, quiet sensuality
Some days are sublime, our lines pulled tight and steady
Whenever you find me and hold me, you show me
I'm ready, ready to shine
Ready to shine, ready to shine
Ready to shine, ready to shine
Ready to shine, ready to shine Ready to shine, ready to shine Shaking my bell, you can ring me up
Breaking my shell, you can bring me up
Shaking my bell, you can ring me up
Breaking my shell, you can bring me up
Shaking my bell, you can ring me up
Breaking my shell, you can bring me up
Shaking my bell, you can ring me up
Breaking my shell, you can bring me up
Sometimes I would hide and cry all night, unsteady
Waiting for some contact, call back
To know you're ready, ready to shine
Ready to shine
Ready to shine
Ready to shine
Ready to shine
