

Jasmine

Vince Martin

It has been way too long, since back when
Jasmine, I've been wrong
I've been wrong about nothing
You're still the same, I wish you changed It's still your game, by your rules
And I will never learn nothing
And nothing ever changes You're asking me to go to an ordinary
Satisfactory, almost paradise staying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hoo You tantalize, I fantasize
And in your eyes is the world
When all else fades into nothing
I'm the proof, you're beautiful When you're aloof, I get dumb
And I can't think about nothing else
And nothing ever changes You're asking me to go to an ordinary
Satisfactory, almost Paradise staying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hoo Love's a beehive of honey and stings
And I don't care if I never learn nothing Staying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hoo And I don't want anyone else
To mesmerize me, Jasmine
