Adios

Jimmy Webb

Ran away from home when I was seventeen
To be with you on the California coast
Drinking margaritas all night in the old cantina
Out on, out on the California coastDon't think that I'm ungrateful
And don't look so morose
Adios, adiosWe never really made it baby
But we came pretty close
Adios, adiosGoing up north where the hills are winter green
I got to leave you on the California coast
Going where the water's clear and the air is cleaner
Than, than the California CoastOur dreams of endless summer
Were just too grandiose
Adios, adiosAnd I miss the blood red sunset
But I miss you the most
Adios, adios
Adios, adios
Adios, adios
