

The Journey Continues (feat. Sarah Cracknell)

Mark Brown

Waiting at the station
Feel no hesitation and begin the ride
Still pretty young
But time's already come and I begin to slide I'm turning down, down looking down now
I got you dazy, little hazy
I get the feeling, just leaves me reeling
I begin to cry Then the rain came down
(Teardrops)
Then the rain came down
(Teardrops) Then the rain came down
(Teardrops)
Then the rain came down
I hope it doesn't rain all day So later on, thought I was on my own
And twilight filled the sky
Voice drifted through, it sounded just like you
And I remember why I ran away from the celebration
Another year by, a fly-by
Out the door, I've been here once before
Forgot to say good bye Then the rain came down
(Teardrops)
Then the rain came down
(Teardrops) Then the rain came down
(Teardrops)
Then the rain came down
I hope it doesn't rain all day I know, now you know
What we're gonna do about everything
I know, now you know
What we're gonna do about everything I know, now you know
What we're gonna do about everything
I know, now you know
What we're gonna do about everything Teardrops
Teardrops
Teardrops
Teardrops I've been gone too long
It's time I bought a ticket home
It's time I got myself back home to you
