Manifest Destiny

Jim Tews

Bones are broken and the will is sunk
How did everything get so fucked up?
Do you want to change your mind?
You can always change your mindYou and I could quit this scene
Build a town and then secede
Like an Adam and an Eve'Cause to the dreamers go the dreams
But believers have the lead
It's a frightening, frightening thingBorn to the land of opportunity
Of manifest destinyDo you want to change your mind?
You can always change your mindYou and I could quit this scene
Build a town and then secede
Like an Adam and an EveTo the dreamers go to dreams
But believers have the lead
It's a frightening, frightening thingThe moon and stars are ganging up on the sun
(Rebellion)Everybody, the sky is falling down
Friends and lovers, the world is coming downDown, down
Down, down
