

Guilty Pleasure

Gone for Days

I'm on my way into you,
In every thing that you do,
In every tear that you cry,
I'm the reason!

Heaven lies a little way up further,
Close your eyes, youâ€™re gonna miss that murder.
A mean delight up in your body burning,
Desire is the game youâ€™re learning.
I am the pleasure,
I'm the guilt of a life time, building up in your mind,
Captivated, sedated, might be persuaded now!

I'm on my way into you,
In every thing that you do,
In every tear that you cry,
I'm the reason why!
Youâ€™ll be lying awake,
Reliving every mistake,
I'm on my way into your head, cracked open!

I'm on my way into you,
One Guilty Pleasure for two,
I'm on my way into you,
Do you feel it like I do?

Vandalize your greedy eyes wide wonder,
No surprise theyâ€™re gonna pull you under.
Desperation hide away weâ€™ll find you,
An ounce of grace will make you feel I do.
I am the pressure,
I'm the guilt of a life time, slipping into your night,
Crave it all and your falling, no way to stop it now!

I'm on my way into you,
In every thing that you do,
In every tear that you cry,
I'm the reason why!
Youâ€™ll be lying awake,
Reliving every mistake,

I'm on my way into your head, cracked open!

One day youâ€™ll find that your life is too long,
Itâ€™s not enough, youâ€™re not in love.
The comfort is sin when your conscience is gone,
You think it over, youâ€™re not in love!
The guilt of my pleasure never felt so strong.
(Heaven lies a little way up further)

I'm the reason!

I'm on my way into you,
In every thing that you do,
In every tear that you cry,

I'm the reason why!

Youâ€™ll be lying awake,
Reliving every mistake,

I'm on my way into your head, cracked open (wide)
I'm on my way, I'm on my way in to your head cracked open,
I can feel it!

I'm on my way, I'm on my way in to your head cracked open,
I can feel it!

I'm on my way into you,
One Guilty Pleasure for two,
I'm on my way into you,
Do you feel it like I do?
