Satisfied

About A Mile

Let Your song be the song I sing
Through the blessing and burdens this life will bring
In You alone I'm satisfied

Through the struggles I face
When contentment starts to fade
Through the constant wondering
When my doubt is crippling
This will be my, this will be my prayer

In You I'm satisfied

I'm letting go of my fears
And believing that You're here
No matter what my future holds
You are God, You are in control
And this will be my, this will be my prayer

And all I need is Your sacrifice
I have more than I deserve
You gave me Your life
In You alone I'm satisfied

No matter the cost
I'll take up my cross
And run to You, run to You
No matter the cost
I'll take up my cross
And run to You, run to You

This will be my, this will be my prayer
This will be my, this will be my prayer

In You alone I'm satisfied
