

Whispers In Bed

New Edition

I've been living on your whispers in bed
And if you had a picture
Of what I've got in my head
Whispers in bed
Your voice is like an angel
And this boy wants to be left
Just an ordinary guy, uh-huh
And you're the vision that this boy wants to carry
You're perfect, you're the one that I'll marry
You and i, we just keep getting closer
Soon it will be alright (it's gonna be alright)
I've been living on your whispers in bed
So full of emotion
Over all the things you said
Whispers in bed
I wish that I could see you
But I hold this phone instead
I'm a victim of your eyes, uh-huh
And endless pleasures we will have cause it's magic
And everything I have, girl, we will share

Oh...oh...oh...i can hardly disguise it
Girl, why should I deny it (we have so much to share)
Girl, every night when I'm home
And I'm sitting around on my bed
And I pick up the phone and I dial your number
I always have these images of you
Running around inside my head
And I just wanna let you know
That I, ralph t., will always love you
I've been living on your whispers in bed
And if you had a picture
Of what I've got in my head
Whispers in bed
Your voice is like an angel
And this boy wants to be left
Whispers in bed
So full of emotion
Over all the things you said

Whispers in bed
And if you had a picture
Of what I've got in my head
