This Moment

Hudson Henry

Close your eyes
I'll be there tonight
To sever ties
Following streetlights
In checkmate with fate
I fell in love
With my destinyWe live for
This moment
That sets us free from fate
This is our
Time to break
Free from this broken placeThese beliefs
Had you deceived
A liar's mouth
With the words of a thief
I lost my soul
To the unknown
The vision
I craved for so longWe live for
This moment
That sets us free from fate
This is our
Time to break
Free from this broken placeWe will fight until the end
With this moment in our hands
For all the wrongs to make a right
For all the broken days into night
To live a lie and live to die
We were born to shed this lightWe live for
This moment
That sets us free from fate
This is our
Time to break
Free from this broken place
