

The Morning After

Lovebugs

the morning after the night before i can't remember anymore i must've passed out here on the floor ask myself why
the morning after the night before i feel sick and my body's sore i can't believe you walked out the door
the morning after the night before i played the fool i played the whore another night of my private war ask myself whywhy do i always abuse, why always want more why didn't i realise what i had before why couldn't i love and cherish why was i such a fool
the night before the morning after the night beforethe morning after and i'm alone you packed your bags and left for home my last chance i have definitely blown the morning after the life we had now love is dead just like my dad wished for a happy ending not one so damned sad ask myselfwhy do i always abuse, why always want more
the night before
