Hollis Brown

You go to work in the mornin', you go to bed at night. You go to work in the mornin', you go to bed at night. You been down to the river, and you ain't been satisfied.Ain't got no place to hide. Ain't got no place to hide. I'm breaking down those rules that you write across my back.
You been down to the river and you ain't been satisfied.Before I be your dog, before I be your dog, I'll take you way out there and leave you where you lie. Goin' down to the river and you ain't been satisfied.You go to work in the mornin', you go to bed at night. You go to work in the mornin' and go to bed at night. You been down to the river and you ain't ben satisfied.
