

Somewhere Here On Earth

Prince

I know you're out there
I can feel your eyes on me
Seen that face a thousand times
If only in my dreams I know you really want me
I can feel your hands on me
I really wanna touch you too
In a way I'm much too shy to speak And even though I'm all alone
For what it's worth
You're somewhere here on earth
And I like it I know you're out there
I can feel you getting closer to me
Now I'm just wondering what you're waiting for
You know I am free In this digital age, you could just page me
I know it's a rage, but it just don't engage me
Like the face to face
Do you want to do this at yours or my place? It's been so long since I been with somebody
Like a million years
Now you're here on earth
You're here, you're here Somewhere here on earth
I like it, I like it
Listen I know you hear me
Like a whisper in your ear
You don't have to fear me
You're everything I hold so dear I know you already love me
You're probably just too cool to say
Somebody somewhere put you down
But that's okay, that's okay 'Cuz whenever you feel
It's time to heal, no, no more
As long as I'm here on earth
