What was your day like today?

Have you ever been upset?
Always like
It was a day
Did you cry today?
All alone after sleeping
Weep again
Did you fall asleep?
I am always with you
I know you can not stay.
I'm just worried about myself.
I'll worry about it every day.
Every day I think of you.
Why am I so
In the end,
Like time passed
Like the season that changed
Was it just a moment.
If you only look at me once
I left behind
All the time
I am only for you
I wanted to be spring.
Was it too big a greed
It's too late.
It's too late.
It's too late.
It's too late.
It's too late.
Will you forget me?
Among passing people
Will you make it into one?
Meetings that resembled fate
It's exciting time for everyone
How do you think
In the end,
Like time passed
Like the season that changed
Was it just a moment.
If you only look at me once
All the time I've left
I am only for you
I wanted to be spring.
Was it too big a greed
From the beginning
So far, so close

Thinking and comforting yourself

Should I really?

Holding hands

Hug each other

I smile and worry.

I wanted to be together.

Was it too big a greed

After all, we also like the time

Like the season that changed

Was it just a moment.

If you only look at me once

All the time I've left

I am only for you

I wanted to be spring.

Was it too big a greed
