

America

Lazer Lloyd

AMERICA LAZER LLOYD

I wish we never stole the lands from the Indians I wish we never made the black man slaves

Yes, as much as I love America, our freedomâ€™s got a few stains

I could do without Hollywood, yes Wall St. and L.A.

And though itâ€™s written â€œIn God We Trustâ€• on the dollar

Sometimes it feels like itâ€™s to the dollar, we pray

In Americaâ€¢red, white &â€¢â€¢..blue

Yes America, still I love you

Iâ€™d like to forget the Civil War, segregation & Viet Nam

Yes, before we start preaching to the rest of the world

Best we remember from where weâ€™ve come

Thereâ€™s a gap between the rich & poor

Donâ€™t know if thatâ€™s a bridge that can be crossed today

And the middle-class are drowning down a river

On the bills they can barely pay

In Americaâ€¢red, white &â€¢â€¢..blue

Oh America, still I love you

REFRAIN

But I was born with freedom in my veins

And yes, I wear this with pride

Never to take it for granted

In a world where evil & persecution have thrived

So America, yes God bless you

Oh America, red white & blue

Oh yes, America, still I love you
