

Ready To Rock

Eden Lost

(Yup, we ready to roll)

Y'all ready to rock?

(Yup, we ready to roll)

They say you got your whole life to make your first album

Guess I been busy livin, so that first outcome

Was worth hearin; so here - it - go

Let me kick a verse and just zone out

From the time I was conceived I honestly believed

I was destined for somethin I couldn't break from

It'd be cliche to say greatness, but hey this

Is what I learned: what you are you can't escape from

So embrace it, don't run away from

Bein that digit in that everyday equation

That's steady glitchin, itchin for limits to break

And nothin can get in your way if what you deliver is great

Hm, there we are back to greatness

I think I discovered what my place is

In theory it's basic

It's me doin me, over time, utter rhymes

Is a butterfly effect that affect mankind

Y'all ready to rock?

(Yup, we ready to roll)

Took a little bit of time, had to get my mind right, had to get the lines right

Lookin at my future like it's all up in my hindsight

I ain't planned that, boy, would have been a climb

Sat up on my bed thinkin I was on the sideline

Eyes wide shut thinking about that bread

I believed that, boy, would have been a crime

So I took it to the sleep and I dreamed instead

Took it as a sign, then I took to the streets

Took it from the books, then I took it to the beats

Lookin at my grind like a stretch, doin time

From the day that I signed to the date of my release

Yeah, I'm doin fine, doin fine to say the least

But I wanna be the prime representer of a beast

I ain't tryin to line with the rest, tryina shine with the best

Till the lime just focus on me
As it should, if I can then it could, be the case
So I ran, over tracks, like I could, beat the race
Overlappin who was laughin at the start, they depart
Call it perm, I know it burns that I'm relaxin in your face
Listen, I am on my job, I set them standards and them rates
Live and learn how to discern the need for chill and makin haste
Now it's time for everybody in the crowd to up the pace
Cause I'm ready to rock, apologize for the wait

Y'all ready to rock?
(Yup, we ready to roll)
