

ROSES & WINE

Ala.ni

You brought roses and wine
Then ran out of time
Where are you going to? You said "I'll be back at night"
A comfort to my mind
Am I a fool? Do you really care, my lover my friend?
Then stay with me 'till the (...) of end
(...) that sounds last goodbye
No more roses and wine
With you...
Where are you going to?
Am I a fool?
Have you made your bed
Sweet lover to friend
Confusing me with your arms (...)
So until you can decide
No more roses and wine
With you... And where are you going to leave me
I am lost, can you find me?
You promised you would save me
So why am I sad and lonely
Believe me this (...) easy
This time (...)
Sorry...
Release me
I am begging you to stop
You returned just after night
With more roses and wine
And some candy too
Go give them to your wife
Keep her satisfied
Gosh she loves you
And you love her
And you love me
And I love you
