

Heart and Soul

Vision of Disorder

She will sleep a thousand centuries
in a silence so deep
She will sleep a thousand centuries
in a silence so deep
that even death may perish
There is no hope in the bottle
(No hope)
This system is destined to fail
(Destined to fail)
There is no faith, no escape to be swallowed (No escape)
A vision of an endless hell
You want a
You want a confrontation
then on those words you will choke
In her eyes and her conscious
Out to her I sail
In her heart is a virtue
Something tells me I won't be denied
The assault on the weak and misguided (Assault)
Indifferent and easy to kill (Easy to kill)
You think change and pursuit of prosperity
A victim of shock and awe
You want a
You want a confrontation
then on those words you will choke.
In her eyes and her conscious
Out to her I sail
In her heart is a virtue
Something tells me I won't be denied
No I won't be denied (Denied)
Freedom lost in the line of fire
What is the cost of the possessions you desire
She will sleep a thousand centuries
in a silence so deep
that even death may perish

We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn

Walking towards the water
You sink beneath the waves
You made me want to change who I was way back then

Heart and soul
Heart and soul

We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
We're gonna torch this city to watch it burn
