Twisted

Linoleum

I should warn you, keep away
I'm seeing things in a twisted way
Anyway, and tonight
I'll be a nightmareI see your face in a different light
TonightLaughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me anyway?I don't want to know the time
Things that excite me
Don't seem such fun todayLaughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me anyway?I'm seeing things in a twisted way
