

Twisted

Linoleum

I should warn you, keep away
I'm seeing things in a twisted way
Anyway, and tonight
I'll be a nightmare I see your face in a different light
Tonight Laughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me anyway? I don't want to know the time
Things that excite me
Don't seem such fun today Laughter passes me by
Talk goes over my head
Think I should we avoid us
Why don't you avoid me anyway? I'm seeing things in a twisted way
