

Secret of Letting Go

Raygava Et Al.

my dreams are losing my hopes are made of glass when i sing this out loud i don't expect it to break my heart you may think i'm stupid doesn't plan just bored a bit you know you afraid for too long to find a place where you belong a different step a different action will cause a different reaction it's nothing more than a game of a game of expectation

one thing you should know when it's time to let go you better read the sun because you knew that you can't read her mind and if you see her clouds are darkening it's not a waiting game your expectation of realities oh...is in better love you gotta go where you hurry boy it's the secret of letting go one generation of broken hearted man was lost that distance between love and one night stand one step moves forward but you remind me once again you'll fall two step back when you replot her midnight text

oh...is better in love
