Forever Yours

Nightwish

Fare thee well, little broken heart
Downcast eyes, lifetime loneliness
Whatever walks in my heart will walk aloneConstant longing for the perfect soul
Unwashed scenery forever gone
Whatever walks in my heart will walk aloneNo love left in me, no eyes to see the heaven beside me
My time is yet to come, so I'll be forever yoursWhatever walks in my heart will walk aloneNo love left in me, no eyes to see the heaven beside me
My time is yet to come, so I'll be forever yoursNo love left in me, no eyes to see the heaven beside me
My time is yet to come, so I'll be forever yoursWhatever walks in my heart will walk aloneWhatever walks in my heart
