7th Time

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The 7th time, love sickness and disillusion
This head that won't listen to me, now
There's crumb of a dark night burning in your mouth
Till I wake youIt's three steps too far, this slammed door
Your damned bed, this white head, beside you
And there is blood on the stairs
So keep it nice, I'm brokenBetween skin and sheets, skin and sheets
I won't disturb you anymore
Between two lights, I woke you up the 7th time
I won't disturb you anymore, I won't disturb you anymoreThe 7th time, love sickness and disillusion
This head that won't listen to me, now
There's crumb of a hot night burning in your mouth
Till I wake youBetween skin and sheets, skin and sheets
I won't disturb you anymore
Between two lights, I woke you up the 7th time
I won't disturb you anymore, I won't disturb you anymore7th time, 7th time
I won't disturb you anymore
I won't disturb you anymore
I won't disturb you anymore
I won't disturb you anymore
