

Good Captain Clack

Procol Harum

Still scowling black
good Captain Clack
must eat his humble pie His bed is made
the colours fade
his eyes once wet are dryThe naked muse who sits and chews
tobacco off a tree
removes his shoes
gives way to booze
and searches endlesslySee the naked jumberlack sip his aphrodisiac
Cotton-picking farmers three Though I lost my weather vane and of sense I have one grain I'm content sipping lemon tea
