Archangel

Samhain

Go, Heaven sends me here to you
And if a-you fear you've reason to
Open up all seven seals
The beast is come to claim the youthArchangel, archangel
Defiant brood, defiant brood
I call on youCasted down my brethren
Rebels from authority
Power, pride, contempt and lust
All these things I give to youArchangel, archangel
Defiant brood, defiant brood
I call on youI am not your son of God
The prince of light will show no fear
Mine is that which rules this world
The beast is come, I am the endArchangel, archangelAnd when they cast out the brood
For the sin of pride misused
And when they cast down to Hell
Fucking broodArchangel, archangelHeaven sends me here to you
And if a-you fear you've reason to
Open up all seven seals
The beast is come to claim the youthArchangel, archangel
Archangel, archangel
Go, archangel
