Looks Good With Trouble (feat. Kendrick Lamar)

Solange

Hey little heartache, skipping out of town
And let's stay out of trouble, you make it look good
Hey young heartache, you're looking kinda charming
On the cul-de-sac, hope nobody comes looking
Hey, little heartache, turn us on the highway
Let's get into trouble, you make it look good
Hey young lover, let's live on the Broadway
Take me to the Bridge but be sure to come look
Hey young heartache, you're looking kinda charming
On the cul-de-sac, hope nobody comes looking
Hey, young lover, turn us on the highway
Let's get into trouble, you make it look goodAnd there ain't nobody loving me, down
The way you make me go places I've never been
And the spaces I should have known
And there ain't nobody breaking me down
The way you make me go places I've never been
And the spaces I should have knownHey little heartache, won't you leave your mark
In corners of the dark where you make it look good?
We've taken this too far
But let me play the part where you should've stayed put
Hey, little heartache, turn us on the highway
Let's get into trouble, you make it look good
Hey young lover, let's live on the Broadway
Take me to the Bridge but be sure to come look
Hey young heartache, you're looking kinda charming
On the cul-de-sac, hope nobody comes looking
Hey, young lover, turn us on the highway
Let's get into trouble, you make it look goodAnd there ain't nobody loving me, down
The way you make me go places I've never been
And the spaces I should have known
And there ain't nobody breaking me down
The way you make me go places I've never been
And the spaces I should have known
