

Hopeless

Train

I hopelessly, helplessly, wonder why
Everything has changed 'round me
I'd tell it to your face but you lost your face along the way
And I'd say it on the phone if I thought you were alone
Why do things have to change? You don't need my pictures on your wall
You say you need no one
And you don't need my secret midnight call
I guess you need no one Is anybody waitin' at home for you?
'Cause it's time that will tell
If it's Heaven, if it's Hell or if it's
Anybody waitin' at home for you
'Cause it's time that will tell this tale You're in and out, up and down
Wonder if you're lost or found
But I got my hands on you Are you strong enough to tow the line?
Are you gonna make me yours or do I make you mine?
I'm in and out, I'm up and down
Wonder if I'm lost or found but I need your hands on me now You don't need my pictures on your wall
You say you need no one
And you don't need my secret midnight call
I guess you need no one Is anybody waitin' at home for you?
'Cause it's time that will tell
If it's Heaven if it's Hell or if it's
Anybody waitin' at home for you
'Cause it's time that will tell this tale I hopelessly, helplessly, wonder why
Everything gotta change

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>