Invisible

DIO

If your circle stays unbroken

Then you're a lucky man

'Cause it never, never, never has for meIn the palace of the virgin

Lies the chalice of the soul

And it's likely you might find the answer thereShe had thirteen years of teenage tears

And never a helping hand

She had fourteen more of rain before

She saw the sight of land

She was a photograph just ripped in half

A smile inside a frown

And the the light, the answer right

Inside her coming downIt said

I can go away

I can leave here

I can be invisible

I go awayHe was just eighteen and in-between

A lady and a man

His daddy's girl in momma's world

That was when he ran

You know the word confused has been abused

But that's just what he was

And then the spark inside the dark

The answer came because it saidYou can go away

You can leave here

You can be invisible Well I grew up quick and I felt the kick

Of life upon a stage

So I bought the book and took a fast look

At just the very last page

It was a single word that I'd just heard

From the two that came before

The only way to really stay

Is to walk right out the doorSo you can go away

I'm gonna leave here

I can be invisibleAnd go away again

I can go away

When I leave here

I can be invisible said, when you can go away

Lord you know it's right to leave here

So I just become invisible

I went away
I disappeared before your eyes
You never touch me you never feel me
You'll never see me again
Because I've just become unseen
Well I'm a photograph that's been torn in half
We're all eighteen and we're in between
We need a helping hand to the holy land
To be invisible
To go away
