

Ecstatic

Vonda Shepard

Well, I'm ecstatic
You're beautiful and radical
You love like a fanatic
And I'm on my knees It doesn't seem my limitation
Since I'm deep as aware
Rolled up like a crustacean
It pulls me from my shell
And I can't hide I try to squeeze myself
Into this tiny little box
Acting like I'm sturdy
But I'm tiring on the rocks
And I can't fly Well, I'm ecstatic
You're beautiful and radical
You love like a fanatic
And I'm on my knees I feel so busted
I thought that I had rusted
You took me down to what I really need I'm wandering down a street
Nuggin' a funky beat
I never felt so complete
But turning on the heat to hide I'm suddenly rockin' smooth
Walkin' in these black shoes
I never thought that I
I could shake these blues
But now I'm high Well, I'm ecstatic
You're beautiful and radical
You love like a fanatic
And I'm on my knees I feel so busted
I thought I had rusted
You took me down to what I really need I get distracted by the day
I'm one of these lucky devils
Who sometimes gets away
I can be persuaded any which way
But, baby, now you're with me
I am in a state... Yeeah! (x4) Well, I'm ecstatic
You're beautiful and radical (x4)
Yeeah! Well, I'm ecstatic
You're beautiful and radical (x2)
