Don't look behind you, you know it's so much kinder
Don't look behind you, when you are on your way
Don't look behind you, you don't know what you'll find there
When you take your rightful place in the headlinesWhen they knock your castle down like Sodom and Gomorrah
You can't turn and laugh at them, you'll still be there tomorrow
Don't look behind you, you don't know what you'll find there
When you take your rightful place in the headlinesDon't compromise or weaken in a desperate situation
You'll be there till Doomsday, still trying to make a name
Don't look behind you, you don't know what you'll find there
When you take your rightful place in the headlines
