All I Need (Is a Chance)

Take 6

Where did I go wrong?
It always seemed that I could make it alone
I guess, you live and you learn
That you'll always fall if you don't take a stand(Now I'm standing)
In need of Your love and Your power to save
(So I'm saying)
I know I was wrong, so don't turn awayAll I need is a chance
I've made up my mind, please, take my hand
Now I see, I can't live without You
Let's start again, this time I'll be trueFunny how things change
You never know just what tomorrow will bring
One thing, one thing stays the same
Day after day, Your love will remain(Now I'm standing)
In need of Your love and Your power to save
(So I'm saying)
I know, I was wrong, so don't turn awayAll I need is a chance
I've made up my mind, please, take my hand
Now I see, I can't live without You
Let's start again, this time I'll be trueSo I pledge all my heart
All of my time is Your's for the taking
All I ask is one more chanceAll I need is a chance
I've made up my mind, please, take my hand
Now I see, I can't live without You
Let's start again, this time I'll be trueAll I need is a chance
I've made up my mind, please, take my hand
Now I see, I can't live without You
Let's start again, this time I'll be trueAll I need is a chance
I've made up my mind, please, take my hand
Now I see, I can't live without You
Let's start again, this time I'll be true
