Baby

Steve Forbert

The world is new in your newborn eyes
You got no shame and you tell no lies
Your slate is clean and your mind is free
Your soul is pure let it shine on meLet it shine, oh baby, baby
Let it shine, yes let the whole thing breathe
Let it shine, babyA concrete town and a deep blue sea
A highway sign and some lonesome trees
The mountains reach and the rivers flow
They wait for you in the year's too longLet it shine, yeah baby, baby
Let it shine, let the whole thing breathe
Just let it shine, oh babyPrayers up to a God
Prayers up to a God
Prayers up to a God to your soul for the keySad old city moon
Sad old city moon
Sad old city moon
Sit down, down watched you sleep
Yes you little babyYou'll travel up and you'll travel down
Walk the road while the world spins around
With twinkling stars high above your head
You'll live and die and you'll end up deadLet it shine, oh baby, baby
Let it shine, yes, let the whole thing breathe
Let it shine, oh baby
