Alpha Omega

Project Pitchfork

Imagine a child
Living in a dark place
Being accused of being a failure
Nothing is right
Everything is wrong
Nothing is right
Everything is wrongImagine this child
Growing up in a world
Which pays no attention
To its positive behavior
Always noticing
The bad things
Always noticing
The bad thingsImagine a person
Appearing on this scene
Giving love
Giving back its selfesteem
This child will turn away
From its hopeless past
And continue its life
In conscience and trustThe same could be with humanityAlhpa Omega

Alpha and Omega
[2x]Small things are big
Huge things are small
Tiny acts have huge effects
Everything counts
Nothing's lost
[2x]Imagine a crayfish
Thrown into boiled water
It will try to escape
As fast as it canBut imagine this crayfish
Put into clear cold water
And imagine this water
Slowly heated upThis crayfish will stay motionless
Until he's cooked to deathSame happens to humanity
Same happens to humanityAlhpa Omega
