Better Off (Alone)

Fit For Rivals

There's nothing left for you to say, it's the same old story.
Your ignorance is what's to blame, it's worth ignoring.
You're finding out that everyone has their own price to pay.
The consequence of never wanting to change.
Can I say? It's not the same just take the blame.
Prove me wrong, I'm waiting here, can't have you near.
Goodbye, I will make it out here on my own.
Just so you know, I'm better off alone.
There's nothing left for me to say.
Just wait til morning.
My patience at its end again, it's worth ignoring.
And we sing.
Goodbye.
