

Wild Yonder

American Wrestlers

Wild yonder
Come sweetly
It's over
CompletelyNail me down
I've covered my tracks with mistakes
Unsticking the stars mirrored backs
The sky leaks
They're looking with eyes glittered black
No heart breaks
How's it not enough?Wild yonder
Come slowly
And kill so
ExactlyNo honest man's words can bear all this cutting
Bored cities the babes drugs round
Filters ill-fitting and labored
DrownI've covered my tracks with mistakes
Unasticking the stars mirrored backs
The sky leaks
They're looking with eyes glittered black
No heart breaksHow's it not enough when it never ends?Well, I know
It ended long ago... I wishSo many people clung to the shore
Each one's now singing
Much better than before
Look at those people
Clung to the shore
Each one's now singing
Much better than before
Better than before
