

Made Out of Nothing (All That I Am)

Coheed and Cambria

Never mind all the lines, I'm coming
And there is no better part of me
You'll see the darkest light, the blind I'll be I accept that you chose to forget
The horrid thing you made of me, my dear
It is alright, it is so The laughing feels so good
But the world misunderstood all I said
There was no joke in what I meant Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? I've given up on all I love for
An honest moment of clarity
I need to feel alright, please let me breathe
In a life I made out of nothing
To cleanse this useless identity Will you hear all the world and its whys?
Just wait, will the latter half be as good?
If only I misunderstood
I weigh all this judgment I've been blamed Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? I failed you and I fail
There's no understanding in miracles
When the worst, it always comes true
I am the nothing you have saved Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? Someone please come
Shelter me from
All that I am, never again
Will I believe the same old story? It eats us like cancer
We're comin' for something
Maybe an answer
With all that you've done for me
Made out of nothing It eats us like cancer

We're comin' for something
Maybe an answer
With all that you've done for me
Made out of nothingMade out of nothing
Made out of nothing
Made out of nothing
Made out of nothingMade out of nothing
Made out of nothing
Made out of nothing
Made out of nothing
