

If I Don't Love You This Way

Jackson 5

If I don't love you this way
If I don't love you this way If I don't love you this way
Why do I say what I say, yeah
If I don't need you this much
Why do I ache for your touch, yeah With you it seems I can reach the stars
With your reckless hopes and dreams
But you it seems still don't believe
How valuable you are I'm really loving you
Not pretending to If I don't love you this strong
Why do I beg to belong, yeah
How can you doubt that I care
When I'm with you everywhere, yeah With you I find, I can close my eyes
To the world surrounding me
And you create the sweetest things
That I could ever be I'm really loving you
Not pretending to If I don't love you this way
Why do I say what I say, yeah
If I don't need you this much
Why do I ache for your touch, yeah You just have to smile
To make my life worth while
Doesn't that explain
That I'm playin' no games If I don't love you this way
Why do I say what I say, yeah
If I don't need you this much
Why do I ache for your touch, yeah
